

Peak Internet Usage by Time (E.S.T)

82 percent of servers report that their peak accesses occur during the North American 9-5 EST workday. (Jupiter Communications).

27 percent of Fortune 500 companies defended themselves against claims of sexual harassment due to inappropriate email or Internet usage. (AMA)

A group of female employees sued the Chevron Corporation after one of its divisions allegedly allowed offensive messages to be passed along their e-mail system. Chevron paid out $2.2 million to settle the lawsuit.

70% of all Internet porn traffic occurs during the 9-to-5 workday. (SexTracker)

Nearly 55% of workers are exchanging potentially offensive messages at least once a month. (PC Weekly)

Two thirds of all visits to travel-related sites occur from work. (Gomez Inc and Nielsen/Net Ratings)

82 percent of servers report that their peak accesses occur during the North American 9-5 workday. (Jupiter Communications).

50% of employees polled reported receiving racist, sexist, pornographic or otherwise inappropriate email at work. (AMA)

One in five men and one in eight women admitted using their work computers as their primary lifeline to access sexually explicit material online. (MSNBC)

In North America, 8.8 billion work hours will be wasted this year by employees using the Internet for personal reasons. (Ipsos-Reid)

Each year, Internet misuse will cost Canadian companies in excess of $1.6 billion due to lost productivity.

